THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION

Compounded from Barks, Roots & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic and Anodyne, for all diseases of the various organs, such as Incontinence of Urine, Inflamation of the Bladder, Inflamation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Catarrh, Rheumatism, and is especially recommended in those painful diseases Albus (or Whites in females) where all the usual medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day; prompt, agreeable and alternative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood causing it to flow in all of its original health and vigor; thus removing from the system all the diseases which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or auxiliary to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in connection with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effect are healing soothing and Resumlcent: removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable sensation usually experienced with nearly all the cheap quack nostrums.

Use the Cherokee Remedy and Cherokee Injection as directed. Both medicines at the same time—all improper diet should be removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For further particulars get our pamphlet from any druggist in the country, or write to us and we will mail free of charge, a full treatise.

Price of Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

VOL. 9. ALTOONA, PA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1864. NO. 17.

SAVE THE PER CENTAGE

BY BUYING YOUR

CLOTHING FROM FIRST HANDS.

ETTINGER & TUCK, Manufacturers and Wholesale and Retail dealers in Ready-made Clothing, would respectfully invite the attention of the public to the following facts in reference to their stock.

1st. We manufacture our own goods. They are made up in our own Store, in Philadelphia, under our immediate supervision, and we know they are well made and can be warranted.

EQUAL TO THE BEST,

and superior to the largest quantity of Ready-made clothing in the market.

2nd. We buy our Clothe directly from the Importers and Manufacturers, consequently we save the per centage put on by middle men.

3rd. We sell our Clothing at a reasonable percentage over the cost of our Cloths, thereby saving the purchasers of Clothing the per centage which must be added by those who buy from second hands to sell again. We retail our Clothing at the same price which other merchants pay for theirs at wholesale, consequently those who buy from us get their goods at the same price which other Clothiers pay for theirs in the city, thereby saving said Clothiers' per centage.

We have branch Stores in

ALTOONA AND JOHNSTOWN,

where goods may be had at the same figures at which we sell them here in the city.

If any person has been told, or imagines, that Tuck's Store, in Altoona, is "played out," let such person drop into his establishment, on Main Street, and examine his goods and prices.

OUR HEROES.

BY FRANCIS DE HAES JANVIER.

[This Poem given below has never before been published. It has been recited by Mr. Murdoch, before large audiences in Philadelphia, where it was received with shouts, and applauded verse by verse:—]

Cheers! Cheers, for our heroes!
Not those who wear stars;
Not those who wear eagles,
And leaflets and bars;
We know they are gallant.
And honor them, too,
For bravely maintaining
The Red, White and Blue!

But, cheers for our soldiers.
Rough, wrinkled and brown;
The men who make heroes
And ask no renown:—
Unselfish, untiring,
Intrepid and true,
The bulwark surrounding
The Red, White and Blue!

Our patriot soldiers!
When Treason arose,
And Freedom's own children
Assailed her as foes;
Then Anarchy threatened
And Order withdrew,
They rallied to rescue
The Red, White and blue!

Upholding our banner,
On many a field,
The doom of a traitor
They valiantly sealed;
And, worn with the conflict,
Found vigor anew,
Where victory greeted
The Red, White and Blue!

Yet loved ones have fallen
And still, where they sleep,
A sorrowing Nation
Shall silently weep;
And Spring's fairest flowers,
In gratitude, strew,
O'er those who have cherished
The Red, White and Blue!

But, glory, immortal
Is waiting them now;
And chaplets unfolding
Shall bind every brow,
When called by the trumpet,
At Time's great review,
They stand; who defend
The Red, White and Blue!

THE AMERICAN CHURCH OF CHRIST

BY AMERICANDA.

CHAPTER X.

America, the Bible Nation of the World.—Concluded.

Among all the nations of the world, America seems to be the only one that has come within the pale of the divine economy. Taking her stand on the highest eminence of human virtue, she laid her foundations in wisdom and reared her structure in the happiness of her people. Planting her standards before the nations, she exhibited the lofty intention of her existence by not only acknowledging the general equality of our race, but in making every citizen his own sovereign, and granting universal liberty of faith and practice to all her people, whether native or adopted, provided they do not violate the laws of God or the rights of their fellow men.

In adopting the great system of free government for which America has become renowned among the nations of the earth, she has won the favor of the Creator, and is now fulfilling the history of prophetic wonders, so long misunderstood and misapplied by the interpreters of the Bible.

That we may the more clearly understand that our beloved country is the nationality so long and so frequently alluded to in prophetic history, I will notice a few of the many scriptural allusions to a number of the most important discoveries in the journal of American events; the reference of which no other nation in the annals of the world can ever claim.

Although man was endowed with the power of subduing the earth with all its elements, yet this dominion was never exercised until the American nationality was founded, and the principles of liberty and industry established. Then it was, that "A way was made for the lightning." Job 28: 26. When the illustrious Franklin, standing amid the tempest when the artillery of the clouds was flashing its fires around his brow, reared the rod of his dominion and commanded the lightnings where to fling their bolts and pour the fury of their power, so that a way is made for the lightning, and the awful element brought beneath the dominion of man.

The force and power of steam and its application to land and ocean machinery, was discovered by Fulton, and brought to perfection in America. "As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the water to boil, to make thy name known to their adversaries that the nations may tremble at thy presence." Isa. 64th: 2. The melting fires were to be kindled and the waters made to boil, to make known the name of the Creator to his adversaries the heathen, that nations might understand and tremble at his presence. That is, the power of the boiling waters or steam, attached to boats and ships, shall bear not only commerce, men and science on every sea and ocean, but shall take the gospel to every nation, and make known His name in every land, until the kingdoms shall believe and tremble at His presence and the gospel pour its light and glory round the globe.

The prophecy of God has also declared that "The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall jostle one against another in the broadways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like lightning." Nah. 2: 4. The chariots or railroad cars shall rage or thunder through the streets of our towns and cities, and they shall jar or jostle each other on their broad ways, and their lamps shall seem like torches in the night, and they shall run with such swiftness that they shall be termed lightning trains, carrying freight and passengers to and fro through every province of our land. This scripture is a truthful history of our railroad trains.

Again the Creator has said, "I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted. Behold these shall come from far: and lo, these from the north and west, and these from the land of Sinium." Isa. 49; 11—12. The mountains shall become highways, and the highways shall be exalted or raised above the valleys over which the sweeping trains shall roll their ponderous burdens from city to city, and from land to land. "Behold these shall come from far," bearing men and treasure from every clime. "And lo, these from the north and west," from the Penobscot to the San Joaquin there shall be a network of highways, over which the wealth and genius of our great republican empire shall pass and repass, until the whole land will glow with homes of beauty and teem with the treasures of abundance. "And these from the land of Sinium" These highways are not to be confined to adjacent or surrounding nations, but even to the land of Sinium or distant China, the antipodes of America. Thus has the great elementary power that turns the crank of machinery, drives the wheels of the locomotive, and propels the ocean steamer, been discovered and harnessed into subjection by the mind and arm of American genius.

"Canst thou send lightnings that they may go and say unto thee here we are." Job 38: 35. This mighty problem of four thousand years has been solved in America. The noble Morse has answered the prophetic question in the affirmative through the great electric iron nerve by which he grasped the lightning's fires and sent them on their blazing flight to say in tongues of flame "here we are," thus conquering the most terrible element in nature, and rendering it a tame and gentle medium of speech and intercourse among the nations of our race.

"Who hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing of the waters, or a way for the lightning." Job 28: 25. The electro-magnetic telegraph is now being extended among the nations, an iron highway for the lightning's leaping flight, is not only studding the horizon of almost every land with the shafts of its pathway, but the watercourses have been divided, and the great deep made a way for the lightning directing the voice of the Creator "under the whole heaven, and his lightnings to the ends of the earth," girdling the globe with zones of steel and flame, it is bringing the nation to the compass of a province, not only revealing to the population of the world the progress of knowledge and civilization among all the nations of mankind, but is forever flashing throughout all the civilized regions of the earth the history of her events as they transpire.

But the scholars of America have not only caught and geared the lightning, and made it a willing servant of man, but they have entered the sky girt deserts and by artesian agencies are changing the arid wastes to flowery meadows and fruitful fields, filling the sublime prophecy of God, that "The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them, and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose." Isa. 35: 1. It has generally been believed that the vast deserts of sun and sand, without a fountain or an herb to mark their almost boundless waste, were useless blanks without a point or purpose in the works of God, but American genius has solved the problem and shown to the world that nothing exists without a purpose. The deserts are now made to rejoice and blossom as the rose, and by the application of art and science are becoming the most lovely landscapes of earth. "For in the wilderness shall water break out, and streams in the desert." Isa 35: 36. Thus from the far down reservoirs of the globe have our people opened artesian fountains, and streams of living waters, in the hitherto dry and barren wastes of the American continent, which are making the solitary places glad for them.

Again it is declared "I will even make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert." Isa. 43: 19. This is doubtless an allusion to our great highways or railways now being established through the vast plains and deserts of the mighty west, whose waters are supplied by artesian wells that flow like ribbons of silver through those arid wastes and burning sands, until the almost herbless deserts are now beginning to bloom, and teem with fruits and grains of every taste and hue.

American genius has not only entered the regions of the great deep of earth, and opened fountains in the midst of the valleys, but it has gone down into the caverns of oil, and in fulfillment of the language of Inspiration, "The rock poured me out rivers of oil," Job 29: 6. "And oil out of the flinty rock." Deut. 32: 13. It has verified the prophecy of God, and opened up a new era in the history of human discovery for the benefit of the nations and the comfort of our race. Oil wells have already been established, the fountains are pouring their rivers of oil from the rocks and vales of America, until its wealthy abundance has become a great staple of commerce, enriching our people and bringing trade and wealth to all the civilized nations of the earth.

Thus have I noticed a few of the many discoveries alluded to in prophetic story, and which I deem sufficient to show that our great country is the ordained nationality of civil and religious liberty, and the model nation of the world. By the march of our moral, mental and manual industry, we have subdued monarchy, exalted human labor, commanded the electricity of the clouds, geared the fiery steam, unlocked the rock-barred fountain, tapped the oily oceans, harnessed the lightning's blazing steed, and rising still to higher eminences in the realms of discovery, she is sweeping onward, far in the van of nations, the model government of the world.

Through the freedom of her illustrious Constitution, the statutes of her jurisprudence, and the revelation of Jehovah, her people are emerging from the gloom of ages and coming up out of the night of monarchial superstition, into the golden gushings of the morning of civil and religious freedom, they behold the object of their creation, and begin the march of their glory and their triumph.

And O, may we, the sons and daughters of the great American Israel, put on the splendors of virtue, compared with which the garlands of fame and the laurels of empire are but rags and dust, and may we, clothed in all the regalia of righteous character and holy lives, as individuals composing the greatest nationality in the history of man, begin the march of our conquest and show to the awestruck nations that America is the long lost Eden, the restored Israel, and the mountain of the Lord, that like an eternal Lebanon shall stand the beacon of the world in the harbor of redemption, while, at her base, monarchy, rebellion and crime shall finally expire, and around her brow the drapery of liberty and peace forever wave.

Then let us descend the tide of generations, as the blessed and favored people of the all-wise Creator, and while the earth is sweeping around its orbit, glistening with the day and gleaming with the night, whirling its continents, rolling its oceans, rustling its clouds and arching its skies, let us hear and obey the declarations of the illustrious apostle, "Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light, which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God." 1st Peter. 9: 10. and go on in knowledge and virtue until America, like the last mountain in the deluge, looms above the waste of kingdoms, and scattering the revenues of her benevolence around the globe in wealth and treasure, beyond the rental of the Indies, she shall stand enthroned the empress of the nations, and rolling her bannered grandeur to the gaze of mankind, receive the homage of their bending realms, and become the glory of our race when the voice from heaven shall declare, "The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord and his Christ, and he shall reign forever and ever." Rev. 11: 15.

AN HONEST DEACON.

Deacon N—— was an honest old codger, a kind neighbor, and a good Christian, believing in the Presbyterian creed to the fullest extent; but lackaday! the deacon would occasionally get exceedingly mellow, and almost every Sunday at dinner he would indulge in his favorite cider brandy to such an extent that it was with difficulty that he reached his pew in the broad aisle, near the pulpit, and between the minister and the village squire. One Sunday morning the parson told his flock that he should preach a sermon touching many glaring sins so conspicuous among them—and he hoped they would listen attentively, and not flinch if he happened to be too severe. The afternoon came, and the house was full; every body turned out to see their neighbors "dressed down" by the minister, who, after well opening his sermon, commenced upon the transgressors with a loud voice, with the question, "Where is the drunkard?" A solemn pause succeeded the inquiry, when up rose Deacon N——, his face red from the frequent draughts of his favorite drink, and steadying himself as well as he could by the pew rail, looked up and replied in a trembling and piping voice,

"Here am I!"

Of course a consternation in the congregation was the result of the honest deacon's response; however, the parson went on with his remarks, as he had written them, commenting severely upon the drunkard, and closed by warning him to forsake at once his evil habits if he would hope for salvation and flee from the wrath to come.

"And now," asked the preacher, in his loudest tones, "where is the hypocrite?"

A pause, but no one responded. Eyes were turned upon this and that man, but the glances seemed to be directed to the squire's pew, and, indeed, the parson seemed to squint hard in that direction. The deacon saw where the shaft was aimed, and rising once more, leaned over his pew to the squire, whom he tapped on the shoulder, and thus addressed him:—

"Come, squire, why don't you get up? I did when he called on me!"

Freedmen's Association.

[The following is the letter referred to in our last issue:]—

St. Helensville,
April 23d, 1864.

J. M. McKim:

Dear Sir:—I do not know how I can better answer your request for facts, than by describing a house on the Indian Hill Plantation, where we paid a visit to a sick child, some time since.—Outside it looked like the other cabins, only stood higher, having steps in front.

Inside all was as clean as it could be made, the board walls were white-washed, the floor clean as scrubbing could make it.

A rug of calfskin before the fire, wooden table and chairs, shelves on which tin and china plates and cups were neatly arranged, made up the furniture, while leaves of Sunday School papers and school cards were pasted on the wall, by way of ornament.

The hominy pot, instead of being left on the hearth for every hungry dog to clean, was turned upside down under a shelf, on which stood the water bucket with its shining tin dipper.

The mother led us into the inner room where the sick baby, a loving babe, by the way, with its great dark eyes, lay on the bed, comfortably settled among blankets and coverlids, and protected from flies by a mosquito netting. A looking-glass stood on the painted bureau, a white cloth covered the pine table, everything was clean and nice.

On the back door-step sat a little girl of eight, my best scholar, reading busily.

In the yard were the two elder girls, one of fifteen, washing, while her sister of eleven was hanging the clothes on a line stretched across the garden, whose rows of peas, beans, ochra and bene were planted and tended by the girls only.

This is the nicest house that I have seen here, but I should state that the father is a government carpenter, having regular wages, and who is skillful enough to make many things for home comfort himself.

The children were steadily at school, gather fagots in the woods to carry home as they return, work in the cotton task and corn patch, help in house work, and yet manage to find time to learn their spelling and arithmetic lessons very thoroughly. I think they are remarkably industrious.

In arithmetic, one of the great tests of mental power, my Division of the school, is, I think, doing well since I have adopted the plan of taking place in the class, the children have been very eager to get up to the head and try hard to recite well.

I heard the ninth line of the multiplicaiton table repeated to-day and questions upon it answered without a blunder and with scarcely any hesitation.

To-day, I told my first class, ten in number, to take the 82d and 83d sums on the 70th page. They are sums like this:

"A man had 180 sheep in one pasture, 60 in another, 651 in another. 9 in the fourth. How many in all?" The whole class did the sum on their slates without a mistake

One girl, Olivia, has quite a genius for arithmetic, not only doing her own sums easily, but helping all the younger ones near her.

She is nineteen years old. Eighteen months ago she was so far below her younger sister of nine, Dolly, that Olivia always studied her lessons, with Dolly by her side to help her in difficulties. They have been pretty steady in attendance, but Olivia's application has advanced her so that she stands head of my second class, and is contiually helping and teaching Dolly. It is delightful to see how carefully she helps her little sister and how she watches to see if Dolly goes up or down in her class, while, at the same time, abstaining conscientiously from doing her sums or writing for her. They are both gentle and pleasant girls, great helps to their crippled mother, whose feet have been amputated in consequence of some cruelty of her master.

The eyes of our children were entirely untrained, till they began to read, which is, I think, one reason why their writing improves more slowly than we expected. They like writing very much, often writing sentences of their own to fill up their slates. One of my boys wrote to-day: "The English language and me language are different, me language has a special station. Owner not understand me, when me talk, me not understand you. We say "sh'um" (see him) you say "What?"

I have corrected the spelling, but the words are unchanged. One social improvement that I have noticed is in the way the children eat. When we began school, they used to bring their potatoes in dirty bags and snatch a bite now and then between their lessons or take a handful of hominy out of a tin cup and eat. We did not like to forbid it intirely at first, as the children came out of the field, often having had no breakfast at all.

Now we have a half hour's recess at one o'clock, and it is very pleasant to see the little groups sitting together around their bright tin kettles, taking turns with their spoons.

Only a few incorrigible ones, will very quietly and secretly, eat peanuts in school still, and I suppose some children in every school will do that.

In their dress we do not see the universal raggedness that prevailed at first.—Some children of shiftless parents are still but half clothed, but the older boys and girls are generally tidy, often neat and even particular in dress, patches of different colors may be put on but the dress is whole.

Some little girls come in white pinafores and look clean and pretty. Their love of learning has suffered no diminution; it is true, that very many are idle and playful in their study time, but to miss their reading lessons is one of our severest punishments, and notice of a holiday is always received with gloomy faces and visible dissatisfaction.

Our greatest trouble is the noise that three classes in our apartment cannot help making, and we hope some day to have separate rooms and in consequence much more order and quietness.

Hoping the facts which I have given you are of the kind you desire.

I remain, yours sincerely,
ELLEN MURRAY.

A PERSISTENT YANKEE.

The following incident is related by an army correspondent:

An incident which may be characterized as very important occurred yesterday morning, in front of Gen. Turner's lines. A sergeant stepped out from our rifle-pits, and moved toward the enemy, waving a late paper, regardless of the probability that he might at any moment be shot. A rebel officer shouted to him to to go back, but the sergeant was unmindful of the warning, and asked, "Won't you exchange newspapers?" No said the rebel. "I have no paper and want you to go back." With singular persistence the sergeant continued to advance saying, "Well, if you hain't a paper. I reckon some of your men have, and I want to exchange, I tell you." "My men have not got anything of the kind, and you must go back," said the officer in a louder tone and with greater emphasis. Nothing daunted the Yankee sergeant still advanced until he stood plumply before the indignant officer and said: "I tell ye now, ye needn't get your dander up. I don't mean no harm no way. P'raps if ye aint got no newspaper ye might give me suthin else. May be you men would like some coffee for some tobacco. I'm dredful anxious for a trade." The astonished officer could only repeat his command: "Go back, you rascal, or I'll take you a prisoner. I tell you we have nothing to exchange, and we don't want anything to do with you Yankees." The sergeant said rudefully: Well, then, if you hain't got nothin', why, here's the paper anyway, and if you get one from Richmond this afternoon, you can send it over. You'll find my name thar on that." The man's impudence or the officer's eagerness for news made him accept. He took the paper, and asked the Sergeant what was the news from Petersburg. "Oh our folks say we can go in there just when we want to, but we are waiting to gobble all you fellows first," was the reply. "Well, I don't know but what you can do it!" said the Lieutenant, turning on his heel and re-entering his rifle-pits; meanwhile, my man, you had better go back." This time the sergeant obeyed the oft-repeated order, and, on telling his adventure, was the hero of the morning among his comrades.

☞ What odd names some mortals are blessed with! A family in Michigan actually named their last child, Finis, supposing that it was their last, but they afterwards happened to have a daughter and two sons, whom they called Addenda, Appendix, and Supplement. A man in Pennsylvania called his son James Also, and the third William Likewise.

☞ A little daughter of a proprietor of a coal-mine in Pennsylvania was inquisitive as to the nature of hell, upon which her father represented it to be a large gulf of fire, of the most prodigious extent.—"Pa," said she, "couldn't you get the devil to buy coal of you."

COAL OIL FOR WOUNDS.—An assistant surgeon, writing from Gettisburg says, that what water is to a wound in an inflamed, coal oil is in a suppurating state—it dispels flies, expels vermin, sweetens the wound, and promotes a healthy granulation. He states that he has seen two patients whose wounds have been dressed with it asleep, before he was through with the third. This is a remedy easily applied in our hospitals. If it serves to keep away flies, it will add materialy to the comfort of the wounded as well as their cure.

A REMARKABLE CASE.—On the 5th of May, in the first battle of the Wilderness, private Harper, a member of the 102d Pennsylvania regiment, was wounded by a minnie ball, which entered his head a short distance above the right eye, grazing the base of the brain, lodged in the back of the neck. Some of the tendons of the eye were severed, and the eye dropped out. Several times he was expected to die, but he is now so much relieved as to be able to walk about the hospital.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1864.

No Paper Next Week.—As it is impossible for us, with the heavy press of job work we have, to get our paper out if we lose a day. We have concluded to omit, as is customary, the issue of next week, and permit all hands to be patriotic on the "glorious Fourth."

Then and Now.

What brilliant scenes have transpired upon the stage of national action in the eighty-eight years of our political existence. What mighty moves have been made upon the great checkerboard, crowning some kings who a quarter of a century ago seemed as prominent candidates for the alms house as for the throne, while others who then wore gemmed tiaras have been driven from their kingdoms to seek a nook in some retired corner of civilization, where they may mix with men of common mould. And while sunshine and clouds have alternated over other nations we too have had our seasons of depression and rejoicing. Aye! as a nation we have lived in an age, "on ages telling," an age of wondrous events and mighty strides.

We look back eighty-eight years, to the few days proceeding that day which lives in every American heart, whether at home or abroad. We look back to that time when the parchment, upon which was afterwards written the charter of a nation's freedom, was yet a virgin sheet, unhonored by the words which spoke the chains of tyranny forever broken. Or to that time when Jefferson wrote with a steady hand that scroll, in which his name was to be wreathed immortal. Then that scroll had not yet been unrolled to the gaze of a waiting, anxious world. Then in their chambers, in whispered yet earnest words, did our illustrious sires talk of injustice, tyranny, OPPRESSION.

Then did they calculate closely the chances of ultimate success. Then were some faint hearts ready to yield, while stouter ones said, "Nay, it cannot be so, we must pledge our lives, our property, and our sacred honors to deliverance from the hand of bondage," and the heart pulsations of three millions of freemen, with one accord, answered "Amen." The old bell hung in the tower of Independance Hall in silence, and determination had made men mute, while they awaited the result of the deliberations of those to whom were committed their dearest interests. 'Twas a stillness like that which precedes the storm, when the elements are marshaling for conflict, ere the wrathful clouds have opened their artillery. A stillness that was to be broken by the peals of that old bell, which hung over the heads of Hancock and his cosdjutors, the sound of which, taken up by freemen's voices, was to roll along the Atlantic's coast, and back inland until it should overtop the wooded heights of the Alleghenies, and find a lodgment among the tributaries of the "father of waters"

Those were sad and gloomy, though they were grand and glorious days.

They were days that tried men's souls, and tested their loyalty. Those were the days of travail which gave to a nation birth. God brought us from the darkness that then surrounded us, and has made of us a great people.

But now, when eighty-eight years have passed away, and the infant nation has grown to manhood, when not only its tributaries, but the Mississippi itself is embraced by the arms of the Government, when that which was once the "far West" is found far east of the centre of our vast domains, when not three millions but thirty millions is our population, when we are bounded on the east and west by the two great oceans, as our natal day again approaches, we find a stillness again hanging around us which tells of a storm approaching, and perhaps very near at hand, such as possibly the world has never witnessed.

Then we were struggling for a nation's birth—now we are struggling for a nation's life. And are we less sanguine now than they were that waited then? Are we less inclined to trust in God and bide our time? Seven years they battled, and it was finished. Though the charter of our liberty was baptized in blood it was only the dearer for its baptism. They passed over seven birthdays of the Republic, while the war of the Revolution hung its sable banner over them, but they came out amid such sunshine as never before warmed a nation into life. We are just about to spend our fourth great national day under the clouds of the present rebellion. Our last was canopied by victory east and west. And for the past year, though we have met with some reverses, our conquering hosts have been pressing back the rebellious foe, and gaining new victories for universal freedom. We would not predict, as some have, that through some hidden magic in the day our coming Fourth will be more glorious than aught that has preceded it. We trust it may be. But we will say that there is less cause for despondency now than when our fathers gave their signatures to the "Declaration of Independence." And we believe that the day they hallowed by their noble acts will be celebrated by our children in this land, in an age when rebellion shall only be talked of as a thing that was, when, as a nation, if the predictions of certain ones be true, we will indeed be prepared to fight the great battle of Armagedon.

War News.

We gather the following summary of war news from the daily papers and other sources:

Grant's army is still in front of Petersburg. Frequent skirmishes occur, and sometime the whole line is engaged for a short time, but no general engagement has taken place. On one part of our lines, while a division of the Second Corps was changing its position it became detached from the main line, upon which the watchful rebels sallied out in strong force and captured some 1,600 of our men. The 184th Regiment Pa. Vols., was in this division, and we understand that Capt. Huff and Lieut. Bryan of Company D. from this place, were among the captured. Perhaps more of the company were taken with them, but we have not been able to learn the names of any other unfortunate ones.

This affair, however, has no effect upon Gen. Grant's plans, as 1,600, though to those of us at home a seemingly large number, is but a very small proportion of the available force around Petersburg. We hope, however, the boys will soon be released from rebel hands.

The President, who lately paid Grant a visit at his headquarters, has returned in a quite hopeful frame of mind. He says that the Lieut.-General expresses himself as entirely confident of ultimate success if his supplies are kept up, and at present he has an abundance.

Our army in this direction has already accomplished much, and we believe if we only bide our time, we shall see them accomplish the work they have undertaken, but it cannot be done in a day.

The Washington Star says: "Since General Grant crossed the Rapidan he has taken 17,000 prisoners, not including those of the last four or five days, while his own loss is less than one-third that number. Among the recent prisoners were men over sixty, and boys of fourteen and sixteen. They all say they were forced into the rebel ranks."

"Besides this depletion of his ranks, it is intimated that Lee has between 40,000 and 50,000 sick on hand, whom he finds it impossible to remove beyond the scene of conflict, besides a population of 20,000 dependent on him for food."

These facts, with the assurance that all the railroad communications with Richmond and Petersburg have been interrupted, either permanently by our main army, or temporarily by cavalry raids, lead us to the conclusion that soon we will hear, not only of the fall of Petersburg, but of the rebel capital itself.

Hunter, whom the rebels had reported as entirely routed, has been heard from. He reports success in all his operations, and victory in every contest. Finding Lynchburg well fortified and defended, and being short of ammunition and forage, he fell back some distance towards Staunton for supplies. Having received his needed supplies he declares his army ready for any orders.

Sherman has had some severe fighting in the Southwest, being at times successful and again unsuccessful. He has lately taken some strong positions from the enemy, but in attempting to take others was checked with a loss of some 1,500 men.

He reports the rebels to be strongly entrenched in his front; yet he is not at all despondent, but altogether hopeful.

He has pressed the rebel hosts back, day by day, but has never fallen back any himself. He stands with his brave troops before his country's foes, as a wall of adamant.

From the minor opperations, we have nothing of importance, without it be the following from North Carolina, which we clip from an exchange:

"News from the expedition under the command of General I. N. Palmer, which left Newbern some days since, has been received. The command consisted of infantry, cavalry and artillery, and was sent out to penetrate into the interior of North Carolina, and to destroy the Wilmington and Weldon railroad, as well as other Government property.

The most unlooked for success attended their efforts. The command went as far as Kingston—(probably this should be Goldsboro)—destroyed the railroad and an immense quantity of Government stores, captured a large number of prisoners, and inflicted great damage upon the rebel cause, and returned in safety.

They found the whole country completely stripped of white male inhabitants, there being only a small guard to protect the railroad, who were easily captured.

The full particulars have not yet been received, as when my informant left only the advance guard had arrived. Enough is known, however, to justify me in saying that everything intended had been accomplished."

The $300 Commutation Clause.—This Clause has been repealed, and after the present draft has been completed, those who are liable to military duty, and are so fortunate (?) as to draw tickets at the great lottery, must either answer to the invitation in person, or by substitute.—The law also provides for enlistments, by allowing sixty days to districts to fill their quota, after the call is made, before a draft will be ordered.

Brevities.

☞ Kind words are easily spoken, and can at be kindly received.

☞ 'Tis well to have a good name, but better far to merit it.

☞ A man engaged in business can loose nothing by kindness, he may by gruffness.

☞ He who is determined to succeed, will succeed, 'tis only they who say they can't, who don't.

☞ Harsh words not only pierce the heart at which they are aimed, but inflict a worse wound upon him who utters them.

☞ As dew drops are like gems sprinkled o'er earth's green fields, so honest smiles are like diamonds on the brow of beauty.

☞ As cheer fulness gives a glow of beauty even to deformity, so sullenness would rob even an angel's face of its brightness.

☞ 'Tis not always kind to men to grant them all they desire, 'tis kinder to hold back the intoxicating bowl, than to give it.

☞ All men expect to secure happiness, while but few men journey in the right direction to find it.

☞ We are generally better moralizers than moralists, being more willing to preach than to practice.

☞ If we could analyze some tears that are shed, we would, no doubt, find more show than feeling in them.

☞ Arrogance and presumption always elevate a man—in his own opinion, but not in the opinion of others.

☞ Men should seek an education to use, not one intended meekly for show. So men's religion, should be known to God, even better than to men.

☞ Our thoughts and actions ought to record good deeds in life, then it will matter but little what is written upon our tombstones when we are gone. Good deeds are a more enduring monument than marble.

"Tickets of Leave."—A hundred and sixty convicts will be released from the different prisons in the State of New York, under the operation of a recent law passed, which rewards the good conduct of convicts by a shortening of sentence. The working of the system will be something like the English Ticket of Leave.

A Horrible Prophecy Fulfilled.

It is well known that A. H. Stephens, now officiating as Vice President of the confederated barbarians, opposed, to the extent of his eloquence and ability, the secession of the Southern States. He argued that under the benificent government which they were setting about to destroy, they had been protected and fostered until they had become wealthy, great and powerful. That everything they had asked of the General Government had been granted to them—that the South had always had a majority of the foreign ministers, Judges of the United States Court, and nearly all the Presidents. Even in regard to that most sentive point, the agitation of the Slavery question, he said:

"So far from the institution of African slavery in our section being weakened or rendered less secure by the discussion, my deliberate judgment is that it has been greatly strengthened and fortified, not only in the opinions, convictions and consciences of men, but by the action of the Government."

Again he says:

"The South ought to stand by and aid still in maintaining the Constitution of the country. To make a point of resistence to the Government, to withdraw from it because a man has been constitutionally elected put us in the wrong."

On another occasion he said that our government was the "best Government on earth." He left no argument untried to induce them to pause in their mad project. Having appealed to their honor, their gratitude, their reverence for the institutions of their fathers, their love of country, he at last appealed to their fears in the following prophetic passage:

"It may be that out of it we may become greater and more prosperous, but I am candid and sincere in telling you that I fear if we rashly evince passion, and without sufficient cause shall take that step, that instead of becoming greater, or more peaceful, prosperous and happy, instead of becoming gods we will become demons, and at no distant day commence cutting each others throats."

Direful as was the revolting prophecy to the imagination of the orator, events have more than fulfilled it.

We do not mention or enumerate the scores of midnight murders for the crime of loving the old flag, for they have become too common to excite our horror, but we allude to the inhuman butchery at Fort Pillow. Read the following extracts of the testimony taken before the Committee appointed to investigate the matter, and judge if the rebels in their madness have not "become demons"—An extract from the report of the Committee states:

The huts and tents in which many of the wounded had sought shelter were set on fire, both that night and the next morning, while the wounded were still in them; those only escaping who were able to get themselves out, or who could prevail on others less injured than themselves to help them out; and even some of these thus seeking to escape the flames were met by those ruffians and brutally shot down, or had their brains beaten out. One man was deliberately fastened down to the floor of a tent, face upwards, by means of nails driven through the clothing and into the boards under him, so that he could not possibly escape, and then the tent set on fire; another was nailed to the side of a building outside of the fort, and then the building set on fire and burned. The charred remains of five or six bodies were afterwards found, all but one so much disfigured and consumed by the flames that they could not be identified, and the identification of that one is not absolutely certain, although there can hardly be a doubt that it was the body of Lieutenant Akerstorm, quartermaster of the Thirteenth Tennessee cavalry, and a native Tennessean; several witnesses, who saw the remains, and who were personally acquainted with him while living, have testified that it is their firm belief that it was his body that was thus treated

Surgeon Wardner, who had charge of the hospital, after detailing the murder of several hospital patients, was asked:

We have heard rumors that some of these persons were buried alive. Did you hear anything about that?

Answer. I have two in the hospital here who were buried alive.

Question. Both colored men?

Answer. Yes, sir.

Question. How did they escape?

Answer. One of them I have not conversed with personally, the other I have. He was thrown into a pit, as he states, with a great many others, white and black, several of whom were alive, they were all buried up together. He lay on the outer edge, but his head was nearer the surface; he had one well hand, and with that hand he was able to work a place through which he could breathe, and in that way he got his head out; he lay there for some twenty-four hours, and was finally taken out by somebody. The others, next to him, were buried so deep that they could not get out, and died.

One of the poor fellows who had been thus buried alive was examined by the Committee, and testified as follows:

Question. How did you lose your eye?

Answer. They knocked me down with a carbine, and then they jabbed it out.

Question. Was that before you were shot?

Answer. Yes, sir.

Question. After you had surrendered?

Answer. Yes, sir; I was going up the hill; a man came down and met me; he had his gun in his hand, whirled it around and knocked me down, and then took the end of his carbine and jabbed it into my eye and shot me.

Question. Were any of the officers about there then?

Answer. I did not see any officers.

Question. Were any white men buried with you?

Answer. Yes, sir.

Question. Were any buried alive?

Answer. I heard that one white man was buried alive; I did not see him.

Question. Who said that?

Answer. A young man. He said they ought not to have done it. He staid in there all night, I do not know as he ever got out.

Another witness testifies further of these "demons."

I heard them shoot little children not more than this high (holding his hand off about four feet from the floor), that the officers had to wait upon them.

Question. Did you see them shoot them?

Answer. I did not raise my head.

Question. How did you know they shot them then?

Answer. I heard them say, "Turn round, so that I can shoot you good," and then I heard them fire, and then I heard the children fall over.

Another witness gives the language of these "demons."

They said, "Do you fight with these God damned niggers?" they said. "Yes." Then they said, "God damn you, then, we will shoot you," and they shot one of them right down. They said, "I would not kill you, but God damn you, you fight with these damned niggers and we will shoot you;" and then they blew his brains out of his head. They then went around and counted them up; I laid there and made eighteen who were there, and there were six more below me.—I saw them strike a bayonet in the small part of the belly of one of our boys and break it right off—he had one shot then.

Could fiends invent more infernal torture than the following:

Answer. When I went there in the morning I saw them; they were burning altogether.

Question. Did they kill them before they burned them?

Answer. No, sir, they nailed them to the logs; drove the nails right through their hands.

Question. How many did you see in that condition?

Answer some four or five; I saw two white men burned.

Question. Was there any one else there who saw that?

Answer. I reckon there was; I could not tell who.

Question. When was it that you saw them?

Answer. I saw them in the morning after the fight; some of them were burned almost in two. I could tell they were white men because they were whiter than the colored men.

Question. Did you notice how they were nailed?

Answer. I saw one nailed to the side of a house; he looked like he was nailed right through his wrist. I was trying then to get to the boat when I saw it.

Captain Marshall testified: "There was also one negro who had been thrown into a hole and buried alive. We took him out, but he lived only a few minutes afterwards." We presume he may have been the one described by another witness, who saw "a large mass of foam and dirt where somebody had been breathing through the earth and brushed it off, and saw a negro there still breathing.

But the heart sickens with the revolting details. These "demons" in acts of cruelty shame the scalping savage, and yet they have sympathizers in the North!

☞ One day a litte girl, about five years old, heard a preacher of a certain denomination praying most lustily, till the roof rang with the strength of his supplications. Turning to her mother, and beckoning the maternal ear to a speaking distance, she whispered: "Mother, don't think that if he lived never to God he wouldn' have to talk so loud?" Such a volume on elocution in prayer.

UNITED STATES TAXES.

Important to the Tax Payers of Blair County.

HAVING concluded to dispense with the services of a Deputy Collector in Blair county the tax payers are hereby notified that all taxes assessed up to and including the list for April, will be paid to Mr. Bell as heretofore.

The annual list for 1864, the May list, and all subsequent lists will be collected by James Clark, esq., in the Township of Snyder, Antes, Tyrone, and Tyrone city, and by myself in the balance of the county.

In collecting the annual list, appointments will be fixed at convenient places, of which public notice will be given.

For the convenience of manufacturers and others who have monthly taxes to pay, I will spend the third Tuesday of every month in Hollidaysburg, and the following day in Altoona, at which times and places they can call and pay their taxes. If not thus paid, the money, or check for the same, can be forwarded by mail to me at Johnstown.

The law imperatively demands that the tax must be paid before the close of the month, and it is my duty to enforce the law without respect to persons. Delinquents will find ten per cent. added to the amount and a warrant in the hands of a special deputy for the collection of all taxes not paid as above stated.

Mr. Clark will be at Tyrone on the third Friday in each month. Remittances can be made to him at Birmingham, Huntingdon county.

LOCAL ITEMS.

An Extraordinary Combination.—The arrangement effected between Thayer & Noyes' Circus and Van Amburgh & Co's Menagerie, by which these two well known and highly popular companies have united their forces and exhibit in one tent for a single admission fee, results in presenting to the public such an entertainment as is worthy to be seen, and should receive a degree of patronage commensurate with the magnitude of the enterprise, and the liberality with which the managers of the two establishments are carrying out their plans. The outfit of the double concern is said to be magnificent in the extreme, a gorgeous chariot, new cages and harness, superb horses, and splendid trappings combining to produce a most brilliant effect as they move through the country. The enormous elephant "Hannibal," seventy years of age and weighing 15,000 pounds, is attached to the menagerie and will loom up hugely in the grand procession as it enters town. The collection of living wild animals includes an infinite variety of rare and curious beasts and birds from every part of the globe, presenting a grand exposition of animated nature which is as instructive as it is interesting. We are assured that the equestrian and gymnastic performances, given in connection with the display of wild beasts, will be of the most dashing character, and from the extent of the troupe and the celebrity of many of the performers, there can be no doubt that this department of the mammoth exhibition will be eminently satisfactory. Dr. J. L. Thayer, who treats his patients with alopathic doses of fun and jollity, officiates as principal humorist, and all persons suffering from the blues, indigestion or chronic meanness will do well to give his remedies a trial, while those who are well will feel a good deal better after giving him a call. The combination will visit this place on Wednesday, July 13.

Just.—We notice that quite a number of our merchants have agreed to close their establishments at 7½ o'clock P. M., each evening of the week except Saturday. This is but a simple act of justice on the part of the merchants toward their clerks and salesmen. Men who are confined to salesrooms from early morning until 7½ o'clock P. M., ought to have the remainder of the evening for recreation.

And, at best, it is but useless to keep stores open to a later hour than the one mentioned, for as soon as our citizens discover the change, they will make their arrangements to lay in their supplies earlier in the day. We hope that every merchant in town will follow the good example of those gentlemen, who have taken the lead in this noble reform. See advertisement in another column.

Pick Pockets About.—It seems that some of the light fingered gentry have made their appearance in town. On Tuesday evening some two or three travelers were relieved of sundry small amounts of cash at the Rail Road Station, during the stoppage of the trains for supper. We hope the adventurous gentlemen (?) may soon be caged, but in the mean time would say to the many who gather around the station when the cars come in, if you have any money, it had better be left at home, pickpockets are circulating rather freely now. As for ourselves, we feel that we can venture, as our pocket has for a long time been in the condition of the Rebel Treasury, devoid of anything worth stealing.

Fatal Accident.—George Attig, a watchman on the Pennsylvania Rail Road, was instantly killed, on Friday night last, near Gallitzin, by the mail train west. His attention was attracted at the time to a freight train eastward bound, and he did not become aware of the approach of the mail train till it was to late to get out of the way. He was considerably mangled and we believe instantly killed. Mr. Attig was a man somewhat advanced in years, the father of a large family, and had been in the employ of the company as watchman for about three years.—Standard.

Accident.—Mr. Samuel Hagerty, of Logan township, met with an accident this (Wednesday) afternoon while assisting in raising the frame of a barn for Mr. Coleman. By the falling of a piece of timber, Mr. Hagerty was knocked down, and fell some ten feet. Doctor Cameron was called, who, upon examining, decided that there were no fractures, but severe bruises, &c. The injury is not considered dangerous, but is very painful.

Change.—Rev. S. K. Boyer, recently under appointment at this place as minister of the Free-will Baptist denomination, has removed to New Cumberland, Pa., and Rev. W. I. Leacock has taken the place vacated here. For the present services will be held on Sabbath mornings at 10½ o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Leacock on Helen street, near the corner of Helen and Annie, East Altoona.

State Teacher's Association.—It will be noticed, by reference to another column, that the annual meeting of this Association will be held in this place, on the 2d, 3d, and 4th of August. Our citizens may prepare themselves for a treat, if we are to judge from the positions held by some of the lecturers announced.

Pic Nic of the M. E. S. School.—The M. E. S. S., will hold a basket Pic Nic on the 4th of July, in Loudon's Woods. The scholars and friends of the school are invited, and expected to attend. The school will meet at 8 o'clock A. M. at the Church, from which place they will proceed to the grove.

Fourth of July.—We have heard of no general arrangement for the celebration of our national anniversary, but believe it will generally be observed by our citizens, as preparations are going on for picnics, in some four or five different groves in the vicinity of town.

Coming to Town.—A Circus and Menagerie, also, another fine lot of groceries and provisions, to swell the immense stock now on hand and for sale so cheap at Fritchey's, corner of Caroline and Virginia streets.

Fire! Fire!!—Do not risk your property any longer to the mercy of the flames, but go to Kerr and have him insure your against loss by fire.—He is agent for thirteen different companies among which are some of the best in the United States.

Hoyt's Hiawatha Hair Restorative.

Hoyt's Hiawatha Hair Restorative.

The standard staple preparation for the hair, warranted in all cases to restore faded and gray hair, and whiskers to their original color. It does not claim to make the hair grow in where it has once fallen out; nothing will do that whatever may be advertised to the contrary. But it will prevent it from falling out, make it soft and silky, cleanse it and the scalp from impurities and humors, and entirely overcome bad effects of previous use of preparations containing sulphur, sugar of lead, &c. It requires no soaping washing, and leaves for its application, nor will it stain the skin, but is as easily applied and wiped from the skin as any hair dressink. It restores the natural shading of one hair with another, which gives it a lively appearance instead of the dull uniform black of dyes.

HOYT'S IMPERIAL COLORING CREAM.

Superior to any Hair Dressing in use. Oils and Colors the Hair at the same time. Changes light and red hair to a beautiful brown or black.

Sold everywhere.

PUTNAM CLOTHES WRINGER.

IT IS THE ONLY RELIABLE
SELF-ADJUSTING WRINGER.
NO WOOD-WORK TO SWELL OR SPLIT.
NO THUMBSCREWS TO GET OUT OF ORDER.
WARRANTED WITH OR WITHOUT COG-WHEELS.

It took the FIRST PREMIUM at fifty-seven State and County Fairs in 1863, and is, without an exception, the best Wringer ever made.

Patented in the United States, England, Canada, and Australia.

Agents wanted in every town, and in all parts of the world.

No. 2, $6.50. No. 1, $7.50. No. F, $8.50. No. A, $9.50.

Manufactured and sold, wholesale and retail, by
THE PUTNAM MANUFACTURING CO.,
No. 13 Platt Street, New York, and Cleveland Ohio.
S. C. NORTHROP, Agent.

WHAT EVERYBODY KNOWS, viz.—

That Iron well galvanized will not rust;
That a simple machine is better than a complicated one:
That a Wringer should be self-adjusting, durable, and efficient;
That Thumb-Screws and Fastenings cause delay and trouble to regulate and keep in order;
That wood soaked in hot water will swell, shrink and split;
That wood bearings for the shaft to run in will wear out;
That the Putnam Wringer, with or without cog wheels will not tear the clothes;
That cog-wheel regulators are not essential;
That the Putnam Wringer has all the advantages, and not one of the disadvantages above named;
That all who have tested it, pronounce it the best Wringer ever made;
That it will wring a Thread or a Bed-Quilt WITHOUT ALTERATION.

We might fill the paper with testimonials, but insert only a few to convince the skeptical, if such there be; and we say to all, test Putnam's Wringer. Test it THOROUGHLY with ALL and ALL others, and if not entirely satisfactory, return it.

Putnam Wringer is as near perfect as possible, and I can cheerfully recommend it to be the best in use.

Respectfully yours,
J. NO. W. WITCKLER, Cleveland, Ohio.

Many year's experience in the galvanizing business, enables me to indorse the above statement in all particulars.
JNO. C. LEFFERTS, No. 100 Beekman Street.
New York, January, 1861

We have tested Putnam's Clothes Wringer by practical working, and know that it will do. It is cheap; it is simple; it requires no room, whether at work or at rest; a child can operate it; it does it duty thoroughly; it saves time and it saves wear and tear. We earnestly advise all who have much washing to do, with all intelligent persons who have any, to buy this Wringer. It will pay for itself in a year at most.

HON. HORACE GREELEZ.

Sample Wringer sent, Express paid, on receipt of price.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

THE subscriber will offer, at public sale, on the premises, on SATURDAY, JULY 2d, 1864,
a valuable tract of land, situate in part in Antes and in part in Logan township, Blair county, Pa., on the line of the Penn'a R. R., with passenger station on the premises, within three miles of ALTOONA, where the markets are as good as those of Philadelphia, containing and allowance for roads, &c., bounded on the North by lands of William Axe, on the East by lands of the heirs of Henry Biggle, deceased, and others, on the South and West by lands of Elias Baker and others, about one hundred and thirty acres of which are cleared, and in cultivation, with dwelling house and barn and two other small dwelling houses and several good springs of water thereon.

236 Acres,

This tract immediately joins the lands on which the ALLEGHENY FURNACE ORE BANK is opened and worked, embraces and includes part of the same ridge on which this Allegheny Furnace Iron Ore is found, and it is supposed that this same ore can be found and raised on this tract. Two strong streams of water pass through this land, suitable for either rolling mills, tanneries or foundries. It will be sold either as a whole, or in parts thereof, to suit purchasers.

The terms of sale will be, one tenth of the purchase money to be paid at the time of sale, and before its confirmation, and the remainder or one third thereof to be paid in thirty days thereafter, or satisfactory security may be given for the payment, with interest, in sixty days thereafter; one third of the amount to be paid, with interest thereon from time of sale, on the first day of April, 1865, and the remaining third part, with interest thereon from time of sale, on the first day of April, 1866.

Possession will be given and a deed made to the purchaser, or purchasers, on the payment of one third of the purchase money, and giving Judgment Bonds for the payment of the remaining two thirds, with interest thereon as above.

Arrangements exist, by and in pursuance of which one or more sales being satisfactorily made, and compliance by the purchaser or purchasers with the terms of sale as above, a good title will be made clear of incumbrances.

U. S. 10-40 Bonds.

These Bonds are issued under Act of Congress of March 3 1864, which provides that all Bonds issued under this Act shall be EXEMPT FROM TAXATION by or under any state or municipal authority. Subscription to these Bonds are received in United States notes or notes of National Banks. They are TO BE REDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption FIVE PER CENT. INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually and on all other Bonds semi-annually. The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year.

Subscribers will receive either Registered or Coupon Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered Bonds are recorded on the books of the U. S. Treasurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. Coupon Bonds are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for commercial uses.

Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying the accrued interest in coin—(or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for premium,) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit. As these Bonds are their value is increased from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.

EXEMPT FROM MUNICIPAL OR STATE TAXATION,

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay
OVER EIGHT PER CENT INTEREST
in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or separate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is holden to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.

These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender or the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

It may be useful to state in this connection that the total Funded Debt of the United States, on which interest is payable in gold, on the 3d day of March, 1861, was $768,965,000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $45,037,126, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum.

It will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in excess of the wants of the Treasurer for the payment of gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtless raise the annual receipts from customs on the same amount of importations, to $150,000,000 per annum.

Instructions to the National Banks acting as loan agents were not issued from the United States Treasury until March 26, but in the first three weeks of April the subscriptions averaged more than TEN MILLIONS A WEEK

Subscriptions will be received by the JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING certain Amendments to the Constitution.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof:

There shall be an additional section of the third article of the Constitution, to be designated as section four, as follows:

"Section 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the President of the United State, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are, or shall be, prescribed by law, as fully as if they were present at their usual place.

"Section 2. There shall be two additional sections to the eleventh article of the Constitution, to be designated as section eight, and nine, as follows:

"Section 8. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature, containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills."

"Section 9. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any powers, or privileges, in any case, where the authority to grant such powers, or privileges, has been, or may hereafter be, conferred upon the courts of this Commonwealth."

HENRY C. JOHNSTON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN P. PENNEY,
Speaker of the Senate.

Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Harrisburg, April 25, 1864.

PENNSYLVANIA, ss:

I do hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of the original Joint Resolution of the General Assembly, entitled "A Joint Resolution proposing certain Amendments to the Constitution," as the same remains on file in this office.

SEAL

In Testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Secretary's office to be affixed, the day and year above written.

ELI SLIFER,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The above Resolution having been agreed to by a majority of the members of each House, at two successive sessions of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, the proposed amendment will be submitted to the people for their adoption or rejection, on THE FIRST TUESDAY OF AUGUST, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty four, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article of the Constitution, and the act, entitled "An Act prescribing the time and manner of submitting to the people, for their approval and ratification or rejection, the proposed amendments to the Constitution," approved the twenty-third day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

JACOB SNYDER, TAILOR,

The Hero of One Hundred Fits per Month!

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention, as a Fashionable Tailor, as follows:

Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings and Trimmings, which, when examined, always please.

Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and gives all my customers a city appearance.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.

Because long experience in my business gives me entire control over it, and I am not dependant upon any one to fit me out of the suds.

Because I am still on the sunny side of forty, and therefore my taste as a Cutter and workman unimpaired.

Call on me, in the corner room of the "Brant House." Give me a trial and you will go away pleased.

SCROFULA AND RHEUMATISM.

CASE OF DANIEL A. BOYD.

PITTSBURGH, December 31, 1861.

DR. G. H. KEYSER: I take pleasure in making this voluntary statement in favor of a medicine made by you, called "Lindsey's Blood Searcher." I have suffered for five years from Scrofula, which broke out in my head and forehead, so as to disfigure me very much, and took off the hair when the disease made its appearance; it also broke out on my arm above and below the elbow, and eat into the skin and flesh so as to expose a fearful looking sore. The disease on my head went so far that several small pieces of bone came out. I was very weak and low spirited, and had given up all hopes of ever getting well, as I had tried several skilful physicians, and they did me no good. In September last, 1861 I was induced to try "Lindsey's Improved Blood Searcher." I must confess I had no faith in patent medicines, but after I had used three bottles of Blood Searcher, the ulcers on my head and arm began to heal. I have now taken eight or ten bottles, and my head and arm are entirely well, except the scars remaining from the sores. I will also state that I had the Rheumatism very bad in my arms and legs. The Blood Searcher also cured the Rheumatism. I am now a well man, over forty years of age, and I feel as supple and young as I did when I was twenty, and increased in weight twenty pounds. I would also state that when I stooped to lift anything heavy the blood ran out of the sore.

Dr. Keyser had a photograph taken of me by Mr. Cargo, the artist, after I began to get well. It does not show my appearance as bad as it was before I commenced taking the medicine. You can see the photographs, one of which is now in my possession, also at Dr. Keyser's 140 Wood street. I would also state that I took the Blood Searcher which was made before Dr. Keyser commenced making it. Although it helped me some, I did not recover until I got the kind made by Dr. Keyser himself. One bottle of this did me more good than two of the old. I believe it is a great deal stronger and better. I have recommended the Blood Searcher to a great many of my friends for various diseases, and I believe it has helped the whole of them.

DANIEL A. BOYD.

ADDITIONAL CERTIFICATE OF DANIEL A. BOYD

DR. KEYSER: It is twenty months since I gave you my certificate in respect to the cure of my head and arm by the Blood Searcher, prepared by you. I was told by several people who have no faith in patent medicines that my head would get sore again in less than six months, and there is no appearance of its getting sore again. It is as well now as the day I gave you my certificate. If you like to publish this you may do so.

ANOTHER GREAT CURE BY THE BLOOD SEARCHER.

DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER.—Dear Sir: Actuated by the sincerest feelings of gratitude, I take pleasure in adding the case of my son to the already many testimonials in favor of the "IMPROVED BLOOD SEARCHER," prepared by you, hoping that others afflicted as my son was, may thereby become induced to use the BLOOD SEARCHER, and be rescued from a miserable condition. My little boy of six years of age became afflicted with sore eyes. I took him to five of the most eminent Doctors of Pittsburg; they pronounced it Scrofula, but they could not help him. I was induced to try the BLOOD SEARCHER. I got two bottles; the first bottle I did not notice any benefit from, the second is not quite finished, and his eyes seem to be quite well, although I intend to use another bottle or two to make sure of it.

Yours truly, SARAH CLARK, O'Hara street.

SORE EYES.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER: My sister had putrid sore eyes, which affected her sight to almost total blindness. I was recommended to try your BLOOD SEARCHER. I bought one bottle, which she took, and she is entirely well. I would recommend it to others similarly afflicted, as I think there is not a better medicine to be found. Wishing you a hearty success, I remain,

Yours truly, MARY T. COUP.
By her brother, HENRY D. COUP.

PALSY CURED.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER: I have been afflicted with paralysis of the limbs for four months, and after doctoring a long time to no purpose, Mr. Walker, of this place, got me to get one bottle of your BLOOD SEARCHER. I did so, and am now entirely well for which I am very thankful to you. HARRISON BRYNER, Connellsville, Pa.

PAIN IN THE SIDE.

I have been afflicted with a pain in the side for a long time, and one bottle of Improved Blood Searcher cured me sound and well. I had tried everything that I could think of, and had consulted the best doctors in the county and received no benefit until I used one bottle of the Blood Searcher, which cured me sound and well.

SKIN DISEASE "BREAKING OUT."

DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER: I have had a breaking out on the skin for six months, and after using everything I could hear of, Mr. Walker advised me to use one bottle of your Blood Searcher. I did so, and had great relief, so much so, that I think I am entirely well, and recommend it to others for the same disease. P. I. V. BRADY, Connellsville, March 2d, 1863.

SCROFULA.

DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER: My little girl was taken with Scrofula, the same way that her brother was taken, and I went to Mr. Walker and got two bottles of Blood Searcher, and she is now well. Her brother sent his certificate last fall, and I want you to have her's.

BELINDA SHAW.

Connellsville, March, 1863.

PILES OF TWENTY YEARS STANDING CURED.

Below will be found a certificate from one of the most respectable citizens of Wilkins township in regard to Dr. Keyser's Lindsey's Blood Searcher. The Doctor's certificates are within reach, and no one need be deceived in regard to his preparations.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER:—I became afflicted with the Piles about twenty years ago, and every year they were growing worse, so as to trouble me very much, so much so at times as to unfit me for work. Sometimes I was so bad that I could not do anything on account of them, they came out on me as large as a hickory nut. I had tried a great deal of medicine for them. I used to buy and take whatever I could hear of or read of in circulars and pamphlets that fell in my way, but I could not get cured, sometimes they would do me some good for a little while, but afterwards they would return again as bad as ever. I also applied to two Doctors who visited me at my house and gave me some medicine but it would not do, I could not get well.—Over a year ago I got an advertisement of your Lindsey's Blood Searcher, made by yourself—when you sold it to me you told me one bottle would not cure me, and that my whole system would have to be renewed by the medicine before I got well. I bought one bottle and took it home with me and used it according to your directions. I then called to see you again, when you said I could not expect much benefit from one bottle. I bought it on, one bottle at a time, until I had used five bottles. After this quantity had been used, I was entirely well of the Piles, which had tortured me for twenty years. In other respects my health is improved, and I am as well as could be expected for one of my age, being sixty years past. I have been well now for six months, and there is no appearance of a return of the disease. I can do any kind of farming work now without the Piles coming down and hurting me. I can pitch hay, chop wood, lift, or do any kind of work which before used to hurt me. When I found out your Blood-Searcher I kept on taking it until I got entirely well. I consider it my duty to make my case known to the country for the benefit of others who may be suffering as I was, and do not know the value of your medicine.—You may publish this if you like—I live in Wilkins Township, and will be pleased to satisfy any one of the truth of this certificate if they wish to call on me.

ELLIOTT DAVIS.

December 24th, 1863.

PINE TREE

TAR CORDIAL

IS THE VITAL PRINCIPLE OF THE PINE TREE,

Obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medical properties are retained.

Have you a Cough? Have you a Sore Throat? Have you any of the promonitory symptoms of that most fatal disease, Consumption?

Those who should be warned by these symptoms generally think lightly of them until it is too late. From this fact, perhaps more than any other, arises the sad prevalence and fatality of disease which sweeps to the grave at least "one-sixth" of death's victims.

Consumption has destroyed more of the human family than any other disease, and the best physicians for many years have despaired of a cure, or a remedy that would heal the lungs, but for more than two hundred years the whole medical world has been impressed that there was a mysterious power and efficiency in the Pine Tree Tar to heal the lungs; therefore they have recommended the use of Tar Water, which in many cases had a good effect; but "Lindsey's Improved Blood Searcher?" I must confess I had no faith in patent medicines, but after I had used three bottles of Blood Searcher, the ulcers on my head and arm began to heal. I have now taken eight or ten bottles, and my head and arm are entirely well, except the scars remaining from the sores. I will also state that I had the Rheumatism very bad in my arms and legs. DR. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL

DR. WISHART—Dear Sir:—I had a very dreadful cough and sore throat for one year, and my whole system was fast giving way, and I was prostrated on my bed with but little hope of recovering. My disease baffled the power of all medicines, and in a short time I must have gone to my grave, but thank God, my daughter-in-law would not rest until she went to your store, No. 10, N. Second street, and related my case to you, purchased one bottle of your Pine Tree Tar Cordial and I commenced to use it, and in one week I was much better, and after using three bottles I am perfectly well, and a wonder to all my friends, for they all pronounced me past cure. Publish my case if you think proper.

REBECCA HAMILTON,
No. 1321 Wylie street, Philadelphia.

Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial is an infallible cure for Bronchitis, Bleeding of the Lungs, Sore Throat and Breast, Inflamation of the Lungs.

MR. WARD says:

DR. WISHART—Sir:—I had Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, and Palpitation of the Heart in their worst forms; I had been treated by several of the most eminent physicians in Philadelphia, but they could not stop the rapid course of my disease, and I dispared of ever being restored to health. I was truly on the verge of the grave. Your Pine Tree Tar Cordial was highly recommended to me by a friend; I tried it, and am thankful to say that, after using four large and and one small, bottles, I was restored to perfect health. You can give reference to my house, No. 968 N. Second street, or at my office of Recever of Taxes, form 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., corner of Chestnut and Sixth streets. JOHN WARD.

Read the following from Utica;

DR. WISHART—Dear Sir:—I take pleasure in informing you through this source that your Pine Tree Tar Cordial, which was recommended for my daughter by Dr. J. H. Hall, of this city, has cured her of a cough of more than five months standing. I had thought her beyond cure, and had employed the best medical Aid without any benefit. I can cheerfully recommend for those similarly afflicted as I know of many other cases besides that of my daughter that it has entirely cured of long standing coughs. Yours respectfully, JOHN V. PARKER, Daguerrean Artist.

126 Genesee street, Utica, N. Y.

* * * * :—I have used Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial in my family, and can cordially recommend it as a valuable and safe medicine for colds, coughs and to those predisposed to consumption.

Dr. G. A. FOSTER 162 Genesee street.

Utica, New York.

The above are a few among the thousands which this great remedy has saved from an untimely grave.

We have thousands of letters from physicians and druggists who have prescribed and sold the Tar Cordial saying that they have never used or sold a medicine which gave such universal satisfaction.

The Tar Cordial, when taken in connection with Dr. Wishart's Dyspepsia Pills, is an infallible cure for dyspepsia.

THE PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, will cure Coughs, Sore Throat and Breast, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Diptheria, and is also an excellent remedy for diseases of the kidneys and female complaints.
